

HOT NOW

"Bigfoot Boogie" Shirt

FBW Embroidered Cuffed Beanie

"Fattolution" Ape Bike Shirt

BIKE INSPIRED

You Can't Buy Happiness, But You Can Buy a Bike

FROM OUR FRIENDS

What's new in the fatt world?

Fatt Ride

By John Slim in Ride The Cape

Kiwanda Scoots! The brilliant sandstones of Cape Kiwanda are one of the Oregon Coast's most dazzling features. Offshore is the monolith that has protected the soft strata of the Cape from being extinguished by ocean weather, the "other" Haystack Rock, a classic basalt sea stack. Behind the Cape is the Great Dune, a massive hill of mudstone and sandstone layers cloaked in drifting sand with a toupée of salal and stunted Sitka spruce. Views from here extend north to the spectacular headland of Cape Lookout. On the beach, there is plenty of action on a sunny day at Oregon's main dory launch site.

Continue reading

Fatt Life

By John Slim in Costal Cruise

NelScoots! Blink and you might miss the Nelscott District. This pocket of Lincoln City lined with quaint beach cottages will treat you to some delicious dining and a visit by Santa year-round. Nelscott is a popular spot for surfing. If you need to gear up or want a personal lesson, check out ZuhG Life Surf Shop. Nelscott District has easy beach access, SW 35th St or SW 33rd St are both right near the sand. Don't forget to take a selfie with Joe the Sea Lion, a beloved sea lion from years past. Just north of the access are areas primed for beachcombing. Who knows, you might find a coveted glass float.

Continue reading

Pages

About us
Terms and conditions
FAQ
Contact us

Where are we?

F'A'T|B I |K|E W|E S'|T
Pacific Coast Hwy
Nelscott
OR 97367
USA

Pedalin' the Pacific

Contact us

We don't publish a newsletter often, but when we do it's awesome!

Email Us

Stay in touch

